(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 1.

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, DEC. 9, 1910.

NO. 161.

WAS DISCHARGED

COURT DECLARED PATRICK A SANE MAN.

AFTER A SHORT TRIAL

Patrick, to Leave Here—His Family to Go Back to Graham.

The county court tried the insanity case of W. H. Patrick Thursday afternoon, and after hearing the evidence of several witnesses and the testimony of three Maryville physicians, who said that Patrick was sane, made an order that Patrick was sane and that he be discharged at the cost of the complainant.

The complainant witness was Mrs. Patrick, who filed the information against Patrick of his insanity. She testified as to the frequent quarrels, which commenced some seven or eight years ago, and that abuse and the cursing he indulged in at these times. She also testified that her husband made frequent threats to kill her, and made attempts upon the person of their daughter, who is 19 years old.

Patrick was arrested Monday at his home near Graham. He drove his family away from the house Sunday evening, after the family had returned from spending the day with a neighbor. Trouble was immediately started after the family had got home, and he threatened to kill every one of them, according to the testimony of Mrs. Patrick. Only one member of the family—a boy 13 years old—remained with his father that night. The rest of the family spent the night at the home of a neighbor.

After Patrick had been discharged by the court, Fred Welling, on whose farm he was working, shook hands with him and said:

"I wish you well, but I don't want you to ever set foot on that place again. We will send your clothes up to you, to any address you say, but don't come back as you are discharged."

Patrick replied that he was going away and wouldn't be back in that neighborhood.

The Patrick family will live on the farm, and left for their home Thursday evening. Members of the family still expressed fears that Patrick will return and kill them.

ATTENDING ANNUAL LEAGUE MEETING

R. C. Cook and R. G. Koch left Friday morning for Nebraska City, where they will attend the annual meeting of the Mink league to be held today at that town. Very important business will come up at this meeting.

Cooper of Fort Morgan, Col., who had been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Hagins of West Seventh street since Tuesday, left Thursday night for Denver, Col., on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Cooper's sister, Mrs. Ray Overholzer, who was Miss Edna Avery of Maryville. Charles Avery of Kansas City, who is in Maryville on account of the illness of his uncle, W. W. Jackson, was unable to leave for Denver on that account. Mrs. Overholzer is seriously ill of erysipelas.

W. E. Hinton, Stant Garten, Vern Wray and Silas Yager of Pickering were Maryville business visitors Friday.

CONFERRING WITH SECRETARY WILSON

Prof. John E. Cameron of the Normal faculty was recalled to St. Joseph Friday evening to address the tobacco growers' convention on the subject of corn growing, also to give his illustrated lecture on bird and insect life. Prof. Cameron was also asked to be present to meet Secretary Wilson of the state board of agriculture, who wish to confer with him in regard to the proposed new agriculture school for Maryville.

Prof. Cameron believes that those who are in a position to help secure an experiment station at Maryville are highly in favor of it and will endeavor to secure proper legislation for that purpose. He has been questioned considerably by these men in regard to the facilities our State Normal would afford, and as to how much money should be appropriated to secure it.

News of Society and Women's Clubs

John Newman to Wed.

Maryville friends received invitations Friday morning to the marriage of Miss Mattie Garland Agres, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Brown Agres of Knoxville, Tenn., to John William Newman of Little Rock, Ark., on Thursday evening, December 29, 1910, at the home of the bride's parents. They will be at home after January 15, 1911, at Little Rock, Ark., where Mr. Newman is practicing law. Mr. Newman, until a few months ago was a young Maryville lawyer, is a son of Judge and Mrs. J. B. Newman, who recently moved from Maryville to Somerset, Va. Mr. Newman's many Maryville friends will extend to him their happiest congratulations and good wishes for him and his bride, for he was one of the truest and ablest young gentlemen Maryville has held the right to claim.

W. W. M. T. Club.

Miss Ruth Matter was hostess to the W. W. M. T. club Thursday evening at her home. This club meets twice a month and spends the time in embroidery. After an hour spent in work the evening was spent socially and refreshments were served. Miss Jane Lee Hogan, one of the club members will leave next week for her home at Davenport, Ia. She was present a solid silver Elks' club spoon as a token of remembrance from the club, and she presented each member a hair wreath of satin roses. The club members are Mildred Robinson, Ruby Currant, Mae Grouney, Audrey McMillen, Helen Wray, Ruth Matter and Jane Lee Hogan.

Interesting papers on the following subjects were given: "Our Neglected Kinfolk," by Mrs. L. B. Taylor; "Daybreak in the Turkish Empire," by Mrs. S. G. Gillam; "The Islands of the Sea," by Mrs. C. D. Lefler. A pleasant social hour followed the program, Mrs. J. A. Ford and Mrs. Charles S. Jackson being the hostesses.

FATHER VISITS HIM

HENRY RASCO WAS ACALLER OF HEZ AT ST. JOSEPH.

WILL APPEAR IN COURT

Rasco to Be in Maryville Next Week—The Date for the Trial Will Be Set by the Court.

Sheriff Tilson and Deputy Sheriff George L. Evans, with Hez Rasco in custody, arrived in St. Joseph at noon Thursday, after Rasco had had his preliminary hearing in Maryville before Judge Johnson. Henry Rasco, father of the prisoner, was in the jail office awaiting his son's return, according to the St. Joseph News-Press. This was a surprise to Hez, as there had been practically no communication between father and son since his arrest.

The young man stepped up to his father and held out his hand.

"How do you do?" he said, without smiling.

The senior Rasco took his son's hand, but did not rise from his chair. The handshake was little more than a touch. Both seemed embarrassed. The father murmured an acknowledgment of his son's greeting, and then lapsed into silence. It was their first meeting since the facts of the Hubbell family murder became known.

The old man's face was worn and haggard. Wrapped in a heavy overcoat, he sat shivering in a chair, which had been drawn as close as possible to a radiator. He was suffering from grip, he said, and, until this morning, had not left his Nodaway county farm in two weeks. This was said in reply to questions by Deputy Evans. Then the officer walked away, and left father and son together.

"How are the rest of the folks?" asked the prisoner.

The father's answer was inaudible save to his questions. Hez took a seat beside the old man, and they conversed together in low tones for five minutes. It was inferred that they talked about the corn crop, and the possibility of raising a retainer for an attorney. Then they again shook hands, and the prisoner was taken back to his cell.

Rasco was not handcuffed when he arrived at the jail.

Rasco was taken to St. Joseph central police station Thursday afternoon and photographed and measured by Detective Pat Ryan, superintendent of the identification bureau. He betrayed no concern in the proceedings and submitted to the various Bertillon measurements without friction. He chatted pleasantly with Ryan and Sheriff Tilson and Deputy Evans, who guarded him. After having been photographed he was taken back to the county jail in the patrol wagon.

Rasco will appear before Judge Ellison next Thursday, when circuit court will be in session. On this day a date for trial will be set. No doubt a large number of people will be present to see Rasco and hear the proceedings in open court. Rasco might not be taken back to the Buchanan county jail after this hearing, but the officers are not sure yet what they will do about this. In case he is not taken back he will be locked in the county jail here.

POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

The Northwest Missouri Poultry association commenced next Wednesday and will be in session until Saturday. This will be the eleventh annual show, and gives promise of being the greatest show yet held by the association. A premium of $2 is offered for the five best birds shown by the person who has never exhibited at this show before. Many other special premiums are offered, one being that of the registered Poland-China hog given by F. P. Robinson. Many exhibits will be at the show, as Secretary Saylor of the association has received a large number of entries.

GOLDEN WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. MILLER, NEAR ORRSBURG SURPRISED.

BY THEIR CHILDREN

Invalid Mother Enjoyed the Day—Two Rocking Chairs Presented the Bride and Groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, living twelve miles northeast of Maryville, in the Orrsburg neighborhood, were given a very happy surprise on Thursday, December 8, by their children, who gathered at their home in company with a number of friends to celebrate the golden anniversary of their wedding day. Mrs. Miller is an invalid, having been stricken by paralysis eight years ago and is unable to leave her chair. The day was especially happy to her, as she is confined to her home constantly. The company brought well filled baskets, and at noon a feast was spread in honor of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller located on their farm, northeast of Maryville, eight years ago, having come from Taylor county, Iowa, where they had lived for many years. Notwithstanding their advanced years they take a lively interest in life, and no one at their golden wedding appeared to enjoy the day more than they did. Five of their eleven children were present, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Will McMahon and family of Maryville, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Miller, Mrs. Edith Spurgeon and little daughter, all of Bedford, Ia.; Mrs. Ella Walter and little daughter of Burlington Junction, Mrs. Dora Lester of Bedford, Harry Condon, a son-in-law, and his family, of Bedford, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, who live with Mr. Miller's parents to look after their farm. The other children, who could not be present, are: William Miller, who lives in Kansas; Mrs. George Roewe of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. Dell Bosch of Blockton, Ia.; Jacob Miller of near Blockton, Ia., and Miss Myrtle Miller of Clarinda. A sister of Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Mattie Albright, and son of Hopkins were present. The other guests were S. M. Lincoln and daughter of Pickering, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crugh of Parnell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Copeland and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Oliphant and daughter, all of Pickering; Mr. and Mrs. Ford Minard of Parnell, Mr. and Mrs. William Lett, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Gray and family, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pistole, Mrs. Mary Pistole, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Birkenholz, all of Pickering, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of Maryville.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were presented two handsome rocking chairs by their guests as a token of their love and esteem.

BANQUET SPEAKERS GUESTS OF DR. FORD

J. B. Trimble of Storm Lake, Ia.; Harry Reeves Calkins of Cawnpore, India, and Thomas John, a native of India, arrived in Maryville Friday noon and are the guests of Rev. Dr. J. S. Ford. The visitors are to be speakers at the men's banquet at the First M. E. church Friday night.

Harmon at the White House.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Gov. Judson Harmon of Ohio called at the White house today to pay his respects to President Taft. He stopped only a few moments, but both he and the president seemed to enjoy the visit. Governor Harmon was greeted most cordially.

When Governor Harmon visited the White house in the conference of governors last year, he was asked if he liked the looks of the place. His reply at that time was that a man should always consult his wife before taking a lease on any place of abode. Today the governor declared that the new white paint and the subdued green walls of the executive office were quite attractive.

"I never saw the president looking finer or in better spirits," he declared. "It is always a pleasure to have a chat with him."

William C. Greenleaf has opened a new barber shop in the basement under the Signs clothing store.

NED HOLMES ARRESTED FOR STEALING WATCH

Ned Holmes, a colored boy with something of a police record, was arrested by Sheriff Tilson this week on a charge of stealing a watch from Zach Pierpoint and is now in the county jail waiting for the coming term of circuit court, when he will be given a hearing.

Holmes took the watch last Saturday in Pierpoint's restaurant, on the north side of the square. Mr. Pierpoint had his vest hung up on the wall, and Holmes took the watch from the vest pocket and unsnapped it from the chain, no one in the restaurant seeing him do it.

Holmes left soon after for St. Joseph, where he pawned the watch. As soon as Mr. Pierpoint discovered that his watch was gone he suspected that Holmes was the man that took it, as he had seen him in his restaurant. Holmes was traced to St. Joseph by Sheriff Tilson, who arrested him in that city after Holmes had confessed to taking the timepiece.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

TWO FILED THURSDAY FOR FEBRUARY TERM.

ONE IS JOHN MC DERMOTT

According to the Petition, McDermott Lived With His Wife Only Ten Days.

Two divorce suits were filed Thursday in the circuit clerk's office for the February term of court by Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison. These are the first divorce cases to be filed for the February term.

One of them was that of Ollas V. Sewell vs. Enola G. Sewell. They were married in St. Joseph on May 7, 1908, and lived together until December 28, 1908, when the defendant left her husband and has since remained away without any reasonable cause. The defendant is a non-resident of the state, while the plaintiff lives in this county.

The other suit is that of John McDermott vs. Senora McDermott. They were married in Nodaway county on November 8, 1909, and on November 18 of that same year, or ten days after they were married, Mrs. McDermott left and has since absented herself without any reasonable cause, so the petition reads. Mr. McDermott lives near Clearmont, while the defendant is a non-resident of the state.

DEMOCRATS SPENT $957 IN CAMPAIGN

The statement of Treasurer John Murrin of the Democratic county committee was filed with Recorder Carpenter Thursday and shows that the Democrats spent $957.27 in the recent campaign. Of this amount the Democratic state committee furnished $259. The total receipts were $1,162.31, or the balance on hands is $295.04.

The candidate affidavit of Wm. E. Wiles, who was defeated for re-election as prosecuting attorney, was filed and shows that he spent $140 in the campaign. Wiles will probably lead the list of county candidates for spending money.

CANNONISM DETHRONED.

(The Commoner.)

However people may differ as to the elements which enter into the Democratic victory won at the polls on November 8, there can be no doubt that Cannonism was overwhelmingly repudiated. The Democratic national platform of 1908 specifically and emphatically denounced Cannonism, and the strongest protest made by the progressive Republicans in the house was against Cannonism. The Democrats, with some sixty majority in their favor, and with the aid of the progressive Republicans thrown in, ought to have no difficulty in inaugurating a new era. They ought not to hesitate to root out Cannonism and establish representative government in the national house of representatives. They made a good start in the first session of the present congress when they put the speaker off the committee on rules, elected the committee, and provided for the selection of the majority and minority members of the committee by the caucus of their respective parties. This last change is the most important of all. The despotism of the speaker finds its tap-root in the fact that he appoints committees, and in so doing puts the members of the committees under obligations to him. He not only controls the majority through the committee appointments but he may even coerce the members of the minority party by threatening to withhold committee appointments.

The whole scheme is repugnant to the democratic sense of justice. The speaker ought to be a presiding officer rather than a boss. He ought to be in position to decide parliamentary questions upon their merits, not according to party exigencies. The committees ought to represent the wishes of the party, not the wishes of the man who may happen to be speaker. And the minority members of the committee should be free to represent their principles and their party without fear of the speaker and without expectation of favor from him. Champ Clark is just the man to lead in the overthrow of this reform. He led in the overthrow of the present congress; and the precedent established in the selection of the new committee on rules and in the selection of the Ballinger investigation makes it easy to extend the principle to the appointment of all the committees. If the Democratic party will have the courage to inaugurate the reforms demanded by the people, it can count on popular approval; if, after having loudly denounced Cannonism, it complacently adopts the more ubiquitous feature of Cannonism, it will find the people as ready to rebuke it as they rebuked the Republican party.

PARENTS CAUSED OMISSION.

Left Choice of Superfluous Cognomen to Son, Who Let It Go at That—Election Judges and Bank Clerks Obstinate at First, and Clerks Always, but He's Still Tift, Nothing Else.

Tift, that's his full name—not John J. Tift nor Horatio Q. Tift nor Peter X. Tift nor yet Myquie St. Patrick Tift—just Tift. If you don't believe it you are at perfect liberty to go down to the New York Produce Exchange, ask the starter how you get to the offices in the tower and come face to face with a sign which reads

Box Shooks

E. R. Tift A. H. Tift

For twenty-five years the general public has been unacquainted with the fact that there is a person in New York who owns no initials, first name or addendum to his name. In the recent rule of England it was not uncommon to see official statements emanating from Buckingham palace signed "Knollys"—pronounced Noll—but that was not because he didn't own an antepenultimate syllable; it was attributable to the European custom.

"It happened this way," said Tift. "My father thought that perhaps I wouldn't like the name that he gave me, my mother thought that perhaps I wouldn't like the name she gave me, and so they decided to leave it to me until I got old enough to choose one for myself.

Always Merely Tift.

"Well, it went along, and I found that I was not exactly endowed as other persons. The boys at school wanted to know what my name was and I told them Tift. If they wanted to know anything about my first name I told them Tift. That was all there was to it, and so what do you suppose they called me? You guessed right the first time. Tift—just that and nothing more."

And so his childhood passed. Once in awhile some overinsistent companion wanted to know just why it was that there was no first name, and after awhile Mr. Tift began answering by physical prowess. But, as a rule, there were few queries. Such things spread.

And then it came to the time when he would have to vote. He and his father, who was one of the original members of the shook firm, went to the family counsel and asked him what about it. The lawyer looked up everything that had happened in that line since the common law was written and discovered that the only case of a one named man was a ragpicker in Boston.

That person seemed to be able to struggle along without much trouble and without anything like police interference, and so Mr. Tift thought he would risk it. He lives in Brooklyn, and he found that in his town—as it then was—and in New York there were only four or five Tifts, and all of them were cousins, and he didn't think they would do anything disagreeable about it.

Votes That Way Too.

The first time Tift went to vote the inspectors of election wanted to know what about it. He told them that it was just Tift, and there wasn't any use in arguing. It got by.

Pretty soon Tift got far enough along in the world to start a bank account. The receiving teller took a good look at him when he shot through a sample of his signature and wanted to know why he was so stingy with the ink. But by the time a couple of checks had come home without a murmur the teller allowed that it must be all right. And right at this minute Tift has two bank accounts, both of which he opened with the one word Tift.

Now there are two young Tifts, and the odd part of it is that both of them have perfectly good front names. The idea of a junior Tift or of a Tift 2d didn't look good to him, and besides, it didn't look good to Mrs. Tift, which is more important.

He it said for those who haven't a dictionary handy that shooks, painted on Tift's door, are the parts of a box. Its sides and its top and bottom, before it is assembled.

FORGIVEN.

I used to hate Bill Hazelton, for once he done me wrong; And when I hate a man, my hate is deep and wide and strong. We traded horses years ago; the one I got from him it seemed was crippled up somewhere in almost every limb. He lied like sixty, and I vowed some time I'd break his head; But—well, let bygones be bygones—his little boy is dead.

I used to love the girl he got. I guess she loved me, too; But he went tellin' her a lot of things that wasn't true. I found it out long afterward, when I had ceased to care. Because I'd learned to love again—but still it wasn't fair. And so I vowed to make him eat the words that he had said; But—well, let bygones be bygones—his little boy is dead.

Last night I met him in the road, it was a lonely place. Lord, how I'd often wished that I could meet him face to face! I know that in a stand-up fight he'd have no chance at all—I'm six feet in my socks, and he is scrawny-like and small. He looked up at me when we met; I seen his eyes were red. And—well, let bygones be bygones—his little boy is dead.

I've found out what it is to love a child that is your own—To have a little chap around that worries you alone. I've found out what it means to watch a little face grow pale. And I know what it means when all the doctor's efforts fail.

Poor Bill! I'm sorry now because of certain things I've said; For—well, let bygones be bygones—his little boy is dead.

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic toxics, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. E. Wisner's of Sycamore, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Culler's of 325 N. State Street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 14-092 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Mrs. M. Lahr, 212 West Fifth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I cannot say too much in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. This excellent remedy promptly relieved me of backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the several years that have since passed I have had no return attack of my complaint. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a specific for kidney disease."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Well Pleased With China.

Mrs. J. N. Otis of Hopkins was in Maryville Friday on business. She received a letter on Thursday from her daughter, Miss Dora Otis, who left last August for Shanghai, China, where she will be engaged in missionary work. Miss Otis is well pleased with her situation there and has no fear of a boxer uprising as reported in the newspapers of the last few months. There are 20,000 Americans and English residents in Shanghai. Miss Otis is teaching in Ma-Tyeh school at Shanghai, and studies the Chinese language three hours daily. Her letters home are quite interesting, and The Democrat-Forum will soon have the privilege and pleasure of a letter from Miss Otis for publication.

WONDERFUL REMEDY.

That's What is Said of Stomach Prescription Guaranteed by the Orear-Henry Drug Company.

Stephen Waite of Lansing, Mich., writes:

"For over three years I suffered much pain and annoyance from stomach disease. I had no help from my digestive organs. My food would stay in my stomach and ferment, causing gas and a dizzy headache. I doctored and used every remedy that I heard of, but it remained for Mi-o-na to cure me entirely. Before I had used three boxes my appetite and digestive organs became all right. It is a wonderful remedy."

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are small and easy to swallow. They stop the most painful stomach distress in five minutes. They drive out sourness and gas and make the stomach clean and sweet.

They are sold by the Orear-Henry Drug company under a positive guarantee to cure any case of indigestion, or money back.

They put vigor and vitality into people run down by indigestion. Sold by the Orear-Henry Drug company and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box.

Mrs. H. L. Raines and little daughter, Laura Margaret, and Miss Theodosia Raines went to St. Joseph Friday morning to visit their sister, Miss Edith Raines. They will attend the Rush-Balby Symphony orchestra concert Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mathes and little daughter, Erma, of Eagleville, Mo., who has been visiting Mr. Mathes' brother, Frank Mathes, and family of 203 East Sixth street, went to their home Friday morning.

Mrs. J. Woodson Smith returned to her home in Kansas City Thursday evening from a short visit in Maryville with the family of Joseph Jackson, Sr., and Mrs. T. L. Robinson, and also attended the Robinson-Bell wedding.

W. W. Jackson is lying very low at his home on South Main street. He has been sick for several weeks and his recovery cannot be expected.

PARISIAN SAGE.

This Great Hair Grower Now Sold All Over America.

What do you think of the liberal proposition that the Giroux Mfg. Co. of Buffalo, N. Y., American makers of Parisian Sage are putting up to the readers of The Democrat-Forum.

They know; they are absolutely certain that they have the only real hair grower, beautifier and dandruff germ destroyer on the market today, and knowing this they have requested the Koch pharmacy to state to every reader of Democrat-Forum and to every person living in Maryville and vicinity that they guarantee Parisian Sage to remove every trace of dandruff; to stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

And every one who reads this important announcement should know that Parisian Sage makes hair grow, not only abundantly, but gives it that lustrous appearance that all desire.

Women will find Parisian Sage the most refreshing and ideal hair dressing, free from stickiness or grease. Large bottle 50 cents at the Koch pharmacy and druggists everywhere.

"I have used Parisian Sage for some time and think it has no equal as a hair beautifier and scalp cleaner. No more dandruff or faded hair thanks to Parisian Sage."—Mrs. William Hoggland, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 2, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Leach of Pickering were city visitors Friday.

Where Roses Are Blooming.

In a letter to a Maryville girl friend received Thursday, Miss L. N. Ward, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Ward, who left a week ago for Devine, Texas, to reside, speaks of the beautiful "summer time" they are enjoying. The letter, which was written from Beville, Texas, where the family is at present visiting, says that the gardens are growing, the flowers in bloom and the roses in the height of their beauty. And we are shivering and freezing in this snowy zero weather.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Walker and Ernest Rhodes of Ravenwood were Maryville business visitors Friday. They were accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rhodes and little daughter, Maxine, of Vancouver, Wash., who are visiting relatives in the Ravenwood neighborhood. Mr. Rhodes and Mrs. Walker are brother and sister.

D. F. Howell left Thursday morning for Cheyenne, Wyo., after a few days visit in Maryville.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child. If there is feverishness, night or day. Haste! Probably live Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 5c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggist giving you
